

EDITORIAL AND PUBLISHING STANDARDS “REVISTA CHILENA DE DERECHO ANIMAL”

I. GENERALITIES

The Animal Law Journal of Chile seeks to strengthen the knowledge base of Animal Law, contributing to the evolution, debate and discussions in the field.

The Journal is composed of two sections. The first, regarding legislation, includes Studies and Academic research Articles. The second, regarding national e international judicial cases, contains Jurisprudence commentary Articles.

Works sent to the Journal must be previously unpublished. Only original works that have not been submitted to other exhibitions or journals, will be accepted. Once the works are received, authors will be notified about the beginning of the evaluation. The works will be sent by the Journal editorial board to different professional evaluators and the results will be communicated to the authors no later than 90 days after their receipt. The Journal reserves the right to accept or refuse the publication of received works based on evaluation results, as well as suggest author changes, while preserving the sense and substance of the work.

On the first page of the article, the author must include a brief bibliography (max 100 words) which contains:

1. Name.
2. Academic degrees and the granting Institution.
3. Principal professional or academic positions, and the Institution in which the position is held.
